

Guano Apes, Sugar Skin

Speak your word
leave a sign
no more critics
lay it down
worst demean
I prefer you blind
to salve your remains
I adore
your last scent
sweet the water
goddamned hands
say the words
my romance before
I take your breath

Want to see you run
to
want to see you run
for
want to see you run
sugar skinned my candy crim

Search
did it hurt
naked body there you lie dont be scared
feel the mood of your bones they get prisoners within theres your world
spit it out goddamned curse so now
you are drowned in the light you look like a silent lean device

Want to see you run
to god
want to see you run
to god
want to see you run
sugar skinned my candy crime

Theres your shirt on the ground runaway
theres a sound
for a minute
we kept out the cold

Want to see you run
to god

Squirm to f... him
love in the dark
wouldnt you lead me
inside
your dream of sanctuary

I lay you down

beloved
