

Guardian, Still On My Mind

You know my heart was breaking
You know I was thinking
It's already over
But we're just getting started in love
Then you showed me
That my fears were only
Looking at the circumstance
Instead of drawing close to You Lord
And I need You
Oh I want to see You
Now you know Your love
Is still on my mind
Every time I come to You
You show me something new
About Your love
Is still on my mind
No matter how I feel inside
You take my hand and help me climb so high
You know I was lonely
And I thought if only
I could be the kind of man
To stand up to this world You'd use me
But then you showed me
If I would only
Put my life in Your hands
You'd show me things I never planned
And I need You
Oh I want to see You
When I feel like I can't take
Another day of this life
I know that Your love is one thing
I can count on every time
Even though I fail you my Lord
You give Your love to me
And then You give me strength to carry on
And I need You
