

Guardian, Sweet Mystery

Looking back at my old school I think of the things that I used to do and I remember those crazy days gone by Sometimes I wish I could go back in time be changin' what was then But after everything's been said and done
I'm glad you are my friend

And it's a sweet mystery that you love me like you do Oh it's a sweet mystery to me

Little boy that my mama knew became a full grown man I live my life like you taught me to you know I try the best that I can And your tender love is so much more than the naked eye can see When my daddy said I love you boy you know it meant the world to me
