

Guardian, Time Stands Still

Time moves so slow, my heart beats Your name. A wind begins to blow, trying to hold on to this dying flame I'm reaching out but I don't know, it seems like I don't even know

You, Lord
CHORUS:

Time stands still when you need an answer. Time stands still when you're all alone. You feel it still but you need an answer; time stands still but you're not alone I asked you why you seldom try; can My love be too late? The time we spend is worth the wait

CHORUS

Don't you know that the answers Will come to the questions you have in your heart; even though it seems time's standing still. Hold On, Hold On, Hold On

Time stands still when you need
an answer. Time stands still when you're all alone. You feel it still God will give you an answer; Time stands still, you're not alone.
