

Gufs, Life's Sweet Sound

(G. Kralj)

As time draws nearer
I turn the final page
Though my life becomes clearer
I turn to you as I watch it fade away
We used to have so much -- have so much
I thought we had it all -- had it all
I reached for things I could no touch
I turn to you as I watch myself fall
I will find a better place a different time
We will climb to a high
So listen to my goodbye
Today I will sing a new song
Tomorrow learn to carry on
The fountain of time won't drag you down
So listen to life's sweet sound
Now my life's become clearer
I write the final page
Though the end it draws nearer
I turn to you as I watch it slip away
I will find a better place a different time
We will climb to a high
So listen to my goodbye
Today I will sing a new song
Tomorrow learn to carry on
The fountain of time won't drag you down
So listen to life's sweet sound
Today
Tomorrow
The fountain of time
Life's sweet rhyme
Listen everything is okay
Listen we'll make it good again
