

Guided By Voices, Bright Paper Werewolves

come on, polluted eyeballs stop scouting out the fields jump up, bright paper werewolves and everybody, everywhere anyone can scratch

and anyone can win
so pull out another batch they want to get out of here but they can't find the exits they cling to the cinema and they can't find security then they finally got recognized so they left in obscurity and misery
