Guided By Voices, Burns Carpenter, Man Of Scie

Burns Carpenter, Man of Science discovers a new rich compound a liquid form of love a brain in psychic peril This kind of love will destroy the ozone Tossed sharply in production but unique opportunity presents itself then this is the new school the first day is always anxious the first day is always This kind of love will destroy the ozone Taken to the test but regrettably not sold for ultimately it must fail untimely and perhaps not too bold This kind of love will destroy the ozone
