

Guided By Voices, Correcto

As rehearsals progress the fly cannonballs tumbling the spy and the phantom deny public interview grandstand productions presents and interesting light and we give you the "no show" come premier night
curtain not opening
fly comes out

swallows the microphone now you can't hear
everyone stares
you can't move through the tension do we have another no show?
An honorable mention?
