

Guided By Voices, Cut-Out Witch

Do you suppose she could change your life?
If she could, then I wish she would
Do you suppose she could save my life?
If she could, then I think she should

It's another busy day for the cut-out witch
Silver threads for our heads, need another stitch
Golden needles in our eyes, then we realize
It's another busy day for the cut-out witch

And could she change this wrong into a right?
Say pretty please and I think she might Cause if she won't, you will fall and bust
And turn to dust, so I think she must

It's another busy day for the cut-out witch
Silver threads for our heads, need another stitch
Golden needles in our eyes, then we realize
It's another busy day for the cut-out witch

Do you think she can change your life?
Do you think she can change your life?
Do you think she can change your life?
