

Guided By Voices, E's Navy Blue

A witness of innocent doctors
Of your wound
I stitched up your broken ego
Like an ego round
Is e navy blue
A bluster of faith
A carnivore of taste and witness
A doctor said "your wounds!"
And stitched up your broken ego
E's navy blue

Was your wound
too much for your broken ego?
Like an ego round
A bluster of faith
A carnivore of taste and witness
A doctor set your wounds
And stitched up your broken ego
E's navy blue
