Guided By Voices, Is She Ever

Is the ever with intent when she likens herself to a crow? Will she crow and say bingo? "I'm a believer" she tells me But is she ever going to cry When the directors bark from out there in the dark Fly sister vibrate - you were automatically free

The moment you came to me Is she ever coming back to me? Is she ever coming back to me? Say it loud and we shall see Is she ever coming back to me?
