

Guided By Voices, Liar's Tale

Let me tell you a story
Conclusive, based on fact
Long ago in the morning
She left, did not come back
I don't really care anymore
I don't really care anymore

Change the days into nights
And you will know when the feeling is right
This tale is too long
The plot is weak and the characters wrong
I don't really care anymore
I don't really care anymore

But she changed my life
I thought she loved me
And I will pray for you
You'll see the truth
Cause that's how it's got to be
Oh oh oh yeah ooh

Let me tell you a story
About the way she was
Let me tell you a story
About the way she was
