

Guided By Voices, The Future Is In Eggs

Rose before sun
This one pushed his way into the chamber
Dogs barking, the sky flashing
Come one and all to the execution
Shellshocked and mangled
Floating too flimsy
Dye string to sing this
The old pirate's coffee
Community fat birds
Loafing on big words
Molding on a lake
Pissing from a cake
Future is in eggs
The future is in eggs

Smiling without chewing
Choking out a grin
Spiffy kids in Cub Scout suits
Who crushed with marching army boots
The fearless leader on his back
Dead from a cocaine heart attack
You move me on to go
Extraordinary show
The movie of the year
Such realistic fear

Billy says something
Not what he does
It goes with practically nothing
But you and me
It is my human machine
Incredible mileage
Effective and clean
It keeps on smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
Smiling, smiling
