

Guided By Voices, Trap Soul Door

(R. Pollard, Mitchell)

I built you up with everything I got for a little more time to analyze the crime (thought) and I don't feel hurt now that you don't write because I'm used to this shit and you tell me its alright.

And your so right and I'm so wrong but we could be lonely before too long And I don't care if the whole things going wrong because we will be lonely before too long

Just one spark makes a hell of a fire
I'm still wrong but your still a liar
