

Guided By Voices, Wormhole

I am an earthworm following
There is a nighthawk watching me
Crawling

La la la la, it's a lonely night
I'll take the airwaves home tonight
Crawl with me into the hole
Where everyone can hide

We're in the wormhole
Seeking to be safe again
Without a single brave soul peeking out
Tonight
Tonight

After the fire, there's a falling rain
Washing us free from the daily pain
Off the hook and down the drain
And out to the other side

To where the soil is rich and muddy
In the riverbed
Feed on the urgent promise of the dead
Tonight
Tonight

Tonight
