

Guilty By Association, Always

Life is a journey
Full of love and hate
No one is satisfied
With the life they generate
Screaming out, For the one who can guide
And I didn't know, he's always by my side

*Chorus*

Your always there, but I pass you by
And only call on you when I start to cry
But I need your help everyday b/c I don't think my life can carry on this way

This pain wont pass, and I'm wondering why
The life I've been living has all been a lie
With no foundation on what should be Just concentrating on the day infront of me
When I look towards the heaven and see your face
I think of your eternal grace

*chorus*

~~Bridge~~

I run to you and you take me in
Take me out of this world of sin
You wash away the black with white
And help me with this life I fight
Help me focus on the day
When you will come and take'me'away

*chorus*
