

Gun, Find My Way

Crack city lover, she moves like a dancer
She'll slip through your fingers, and kill you like cancer
It pains me to hurt you and hurts me to leave you
I work til my back breaks, it's more than I can take

She's deep as an ocean, closer than brothers
My fallen angel, she leaves herself open
It's all an illusion, this world of confusion
Just follow the river, wherever it takes you

Someone help me to find my way again
Someone help me to find my way again

Come on now baby, my lover lazy
Let's preach to the masses and bridge all the classes
A cool kind of swagger and lips like Jagger
This is a clampdown, it goes up so it comes down

In with the in crowd, and I'm thinking out loud
I hunger for you, need to be near you

Someone help me to find my way again
I gotta know now, I gotta know now,
Someone help me to find my way again
I gotta know now, I gotta know now,
Someone help me to find my way

Born to be broken, she asks no questions
I need her to function, she's, she's my religion
Inside I'm twisted and she's so gifted
A perfect creation, my dedication

Someone help me to find my way again
I gotta know now, I gotta know now,
Someone help me to find my way again
I gotta know now, I gotta know now,
Someone help me to find my way again
