

Gun, Money (Everybody Wants Her)

Living it up all night
If you're in it for the money that's alright
This is the midnight hourd
Forget about your troubles hold on tight
Gimme a time and place
Just shuffle to the music the band plays on
Take what you can from life yeh
My father always told me when you're gone you're gone

Everbody knows her name
Everbody knows this game
Go down living it up
Fall down giving it up
Deep down everybody loves her
Go down living it up
Fall down giving it up
Deep down everybody loves her

Man on the street says Baby if you're in
It for the money I'm with you
Living on dreams look now cause the door is lying open
Walk right through
The look in her eye says Baby I'm taking you to heaven
Lights say red
Do what you do that's good
Cause you never know the minute when you drop down dead

Everybody loves this game
Everybody want some fame
Go down living it up
Fall down giving it up
Deep down everybody loves her
(Can you hear what I say now)
Go down living it up (living it up)
Fall down giving it up (giving it up)
Deep down everybody loves her
It's all for the love of money
Go down living it up (for the love of money)
Fall down giving it up (for the love of money)
Deep down everybody loves her

Talking bout you and me everybody wants to be
Just like you and me everybody wants to be
I've seen it before and I know everybody wants the same
Don't look back if you're running into trouble
They all come running when the money's on the table

Everybody wants some
Everybody has some
Everybody needs some
Word gets round when the money's on the table

Go down living it up (but it's alright)
Fall down giving it up (yeh it's alright)
Deep down everybody loves her (everybody loves her)
Go down living it up (living it up)
Fall down giving it up (giving it up)
Deep down everybody loves her (seen it before)
Go down living it up (seen it before)
Fall down giving it up (seen it before)
Deep down everybody loves her
It's all for the love of money
Go down living it up (talking bout love of money)
Fall down giving it up (all for the love of money)

Deep down everybody loves her
Everybody knows everybody knows
Just like you and me everybody wants to be
Just like you and me everybody wants to be
But it's all for the love of money
Talking bout the love of money
It's alright
Yeah it's alright
