

Gun, Reach Out For Love

See the white light, it was never meant to last
You cry like a child, forget about the past
Hanging on to promises, hanging on to dreams
Stop and ask yourself is there more than what there seems?

If I could, you know I would
Reach out for love
If I could, you know I would
Reach out for love

Talk about life, can it ever be the same?
If love is a drug, then your sorrow is your pain
Music on the radio, maybe I'm a fool
Tell me what you need, cos I'm try to get to you

If I could, you know I would
Reach out for love
If I could, you know I would

You've got to reach out, free your mind
You've got to leave those fools behind
You've got to want it, need it, feel it, take it, breath it
If you wanna get out of here alive

One more time, one more try
So take what you can from this wild, wild life yeah
Stop the world and make it work, time is on your side
I believe in you, so if you wanna get out of here alive

If I could, you know I would
Reach out for love
If I could, you know I would

You've got to reach out, free your mind
You've got to leave those fools behind
You've got to want it, need it, feel it, take it, breath it

You've got to reach out, free your mind
You've got to leave those fools behind
You've got to want it, need it, feel it, take it, breath it
If you wanna get out of here alive

You've got to reach out, free your mind
(If you wanna get out of here alive)
You've got to leave those, fools behind
You've got to want it, need it, feel it, take it, breath it

You've got to reach out, free your mind
You've got to leave those fools behind
You've got to want it, need it, feel it, take it, breath it
