Tryna give you more life (tryna give you more life)
I can see through the spite (I can see through the spite)

Paid a hell of a price (paid a hell of a price)

Hopped on a jet, you can't delay the flight
One of the best, ride the beat like a bike
Don't press your tone when you niggas drive by
The stick is so extend, niggas shootin' on sight
I blow through a twenty but that shit was light
When they cut that check, man I gotta do right
Why your bitch mansion so wet it was ice
Hold the key to everything that I desire
This not a freestyle 'cause this shit in my brain
Prepare for a lot 'cause this shit come with pain
You niggas fell off and just started getting paid
Made me a boss, now I hold my own weight
I'm practicing patience, don't know how to wait
Some people just trying, don't got what it take
I talked to the guy, he don't make no mistakes
They call me Young Gunna, I might change the game
They call me Young Gunna, I might change the game
Hop in the picture, I might need a frame
I'm tryna free my cause out the chain gang
I'ma come in and go out with a bang
I'ma come in and go out with a bang
I'ma come in and go out with a bang
Used to be trapping and ducking these raids
Now we count up and get booked for a stage
Now we count up and get booked for a stage
I feel like Uzi, I love her with rage
Ride around town in that Bentley Mulsanne
I wanna shit on my exes today
I wanna shit on my exes today
Spend up them racks and then look at they face
This came from Metro, this shit ain't from Zay
He came to let the beast out of the cage

Tryna give you more life (tryna give you more life)
I can see through the spite (I can see through the spite)
Niggas creepin' like mice (creepin' like mice)
I'ma speak through the mic (I'ma speak through the mic)

I'm the one that got the car kill it
