

Gunpowder Pinhead, High Maintenance

I stroke your ego with a lubricant
Until it stands erect
Instead your limp guilt trips
You should have come with a warrantee
Cause talk is cheap
And I think I'd like to trade you in

When your just not high maintenance
Cause your just not high maintenance
Well you just not high maintenance and uh what

Going on my hand and feet
Wearin' out your welcome untill it bleeds
I'm not a victim of your selfish charades
Your just a whore for sympathy to me
