

Gus And Frank, The Umbrella Song

I was livin' out of desperation
All I had was my imagination
Desperate times call for desperate deeds
Thought I'd given all the love this lover had to give

Oh oh then she walked out of the rainbow
As I walked out of the rain
And I put down my umbrella
And let the sun shine in (let the sun shine in)

Thought that love was just a new sensation
Thought that she was an hallucination
How was I to know we'd shine so brightly?
How was I to know this lover still had love to give?

Oh, oh then she walked out of the rainbow
As I walked out of the rain
And I put down my umbrella
And let the sun shine in
(let the sun shine in)
I let the sun shine in she"""".

I was livin' out of desperation
All I had was my vaccination
Desperate times call for desperate deeds
I thought I'd given all the love
I thought I'd given all the love this lover had to give

Oh, oh then she walked out of the rainbow
As I walked out of the rain
And I put down my umbrella
And let the sun shine in
(let the sun shine in)

Oh oh then she walked out of the rainbow
As I walked out of the rain
And I put down my umbrella
I put down my umbrella
I put down my umbrella baby

And let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in
let the sun shine in

You know I needed to let the sun shine in baby
Let the sun shine in
