

Gus Gus (GusGus), Hold You

intro

I have a word I think I have a premonition

I feel i should meet with you

On a secret rendezvous

We could sit in the sun

I sit outside with my man

And the mountains will grow taller for the sake of violet

Baby do you know what its like to love somebody i just want to hold you in my arms again (repeat)

What its liek to long for your body

musical interlude

True love I got

Oh I oh oh I stylised

I just wanna hold you, just gotto hold you stylised(repeat)
