

Guster, I Hope Tomorrow Is Like Today

I'm awake, you're still sleeping
The sun will rise like yesterday
Everything that we are now
Is everything we can't let go
Or its gone forever, far away
I hope tomorrow is like today
Don't you go away tomorrow
I don't think I could handle that You're probably dreaming that you're flying on Then you start to fall
But then you rise and shine forever
Don't go away
I hope tomorrow is like today
