

Guster, Love For Me

I know there is a place
A place where I belong
Not mistreated or undone
And if I find that place
Ill keep my mouth shut
Cause I wont be there alone
And if youre standing there with me
Ill swear its a lie and Ill still believe it
Cause I came
And I spoke
And you ran
Didnt even wait to hear the words
Or see the look in my eyes
Cause I bled
And you watched
And I cried myself to sleep
Came to wipe my tears away but you
You couldnt look in my eyes again
Because of the love for me
I understand the time
It passes so slowly
And I can hear its laughter
But there will come a time
When you will ask me
And I will join you then
And if youre standing there with me
Ill swear its a lie and Ill still believe it
Because of the love for me
