

Guster, Say That To My Face

'Round the corner
Lonliness still following me
I can't shake her
Her mother said,
"Now don't be scared to fight"

So I should feel no shame
I should never turn the other cheek
Come and say that to my face
Shyness will keep me in place

Love always comes
Love gets her way
Love bites my tongue
Then love goes away

Shyness, fear, and shame
Whisper all those things about me
Come and say that to my face
Words that I think but don't say

Love always comes
Love gets her way
Love knows the time
Then love is gone
Save me, I'm strong
Where is the sign?

For shyness, fear, and shame
Wrapped her arms and legs around me
Come and say that to my face
When will it be that
I don't feel no shame?
There's a sin that's coming on me
Come and say that to my face
