

Gutter Demons, The Offer

Spill your guts, sign at the bottom
Save your breath for your everyday job.
The choice is yours, the fate is mine
You wanted more, you want it now, and now you're wanted dead.
I'm the first you'll please, the last thing you'll see.
Turning criminal minds into a killing spree
Your mission, work for me from now on
I'm invincible and you are the storm.
You'll find comfort when the bottle's empty
Just look closer and you'll find me
My proposition will give you answers
No one will give a better offer.
Your greed has my attention
get ready the hunt has begun.
From East to West, we're sowing the seeds.
there's no ball and chain where we are going.
Don't fear the rope, or the grave robber
follow your path, forget your number.
above the law, you'll pay your dues.
Don't wait for me, for I will find you.
You'll find comfort when the bottle's empty
Just look closer and you'll find me
My proposition will give you answers
No one will give a better offer.
So now follow your unholy path.
keep our secret under your hat.
turning criminal minds into demons,
I'm unpredictable and you're the devil's son.
You're the first to burn, the last thing you'll feel close your eyes dear what you see is real.
The choice is mine, the fate is yours
I wanted more, I want it now and now you're wanted dead
You'll find comfort when the bottle's empty
Just look closer and you'll find me
My proposition will give you answers
No one will give a better offer.
