

Guttermouth, I Saw The Light

sometimes i find i can't do the things to keep you out of my mind i need a drug to help me forget you you can't deny this from me my pride
i finally realized that you don't want me i saw the light losing you has shown on me i payed your price

i never asked that much from you rolling the dice with you i always always seem to lose
you can't deny this from me my right i'm gonna say what i want you don't own me cause i know why you will be sorry i wont be denied you can't deny it from be every time i'm outta live i only tried to speak my mind i can't hold on must lets go i can say i told you so you tell me that you changed your mind your to late to realize that i'm long gone and doing fine you don't own me
