

Guttermouth, Looking Good Is All That Matters

you can't predict if she'll stay or go if she speaks again its a brick i'll throw don't you know her voice will make you want to hang yourself but something makes you want to stay looking good is all that matters god bless our society another day another donut hole damnit honey you can eat don't you eye my jelly roll you know better, but can't help yourself but puking keeps you looking great
