

Guttermouth, What If?

dateline the early 1970's now world famous rock quartet the doors, lead singer james morrison has recently died while down but certainly not out the surviving members desparately tried to piece together their broken lives every option was considered, a new name the windows, the walls, even the door knobs ultimately, the band opted to carry on under the original doors name auditioning new singers.

one young hopeful, a struggling art student from athens georgia, fred schnider, who went on to front the hugely successful b-52's tried out for this position the lyrical style of the young schnider more known for his quick wit and imprompto jams was hard fought to match the well structured melodies of the classic doors numbers.

let's listen in...

love me 2 times

love me 3 times

i've got me a car

it seats about 20

so hurry up and bring your juke box money gloria

gloria

you're livin in your own private idaho livin in your own private idaho this is the end

this is the end

wammy kiss me wammy hug revitalize me give me wammy love yea!

light my fire

we couldn't get much hire he was in a jam

he's in a giant clam
