

Gwen Stefani, Breakin' Up

How sick is this
How sick is this

You know, you know you wanna call me back
You know, you know you wanna call me back
You know, you know you wanna call me back

[Bridge]

Hold up I think youre cutting out
Hold up I think youre cutting out
Hold up I think Im losing you
Hold up I think Im losing you
Tell me can you hear me now
Tell me can you hear me now
Tell me can you hear me now
Tell me can you hear me now

[Chorus]

Were breakin up
Oh, oh, oh
Were breakin up
Oh, oh, oh
Were breakin up
Oh, oh, oh
Were breakin up
Oh, oh, oh

Gonna get ya on the phone
And our connections all wrong
Youre acting like Im slower than you are
And my batteries get low

Get me charged up or you will regret it
I need to call you back so I can hear you better Bout to end the conversation altogether
Yeah

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

come on, give a little love why arent you calling me back k, now Im gonna call you at home and leave another sorry message

Whys it have to get so complicated
Acting so cold, re Fridgerated
Got your voice mail on, Im so frustrated
Yeah

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

I hate it when the signal drop on my cell phone
Just tryin to talk before my batterys gone
I'm not in the mood for your stupid ringtones
I want my battery charged and I want you in my zone

[Bridge]

[Chorus]
