

Gwen Stefani, Wonderful Life

I havent thought of you
For years you know
Your memory seems to come and go
Our time meant so much to me
Now you cant be found

You were the first to want me
The first to love me
The first to need me
Who was the last to know you
The last to love you
The last to hold you

Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Such a wonderful, wonderful life

I thought of you again today
Reminding me how our time have changed
If you only knew what you gave to me
Now you cant be found

And you were the first I trusted
I learned what love is
When we were just kids
When did you kiss the last time
How could you think youd be better off

Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Whyd you have to say goodbye
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Such a wonderful, wonderful life

Thank you for those special moments
You will always be here, in my mind
And did you know you changed my life
Im thankful for that time
Im thankful for that time
Im thankful for that time

Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Whyd you have to say goodbye
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Im asking why but Ill never know
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Whyd you have to say goodbye
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Such a wonderful, wonderful life
Its a wonderful, wonderful life
Such a wonderful, wonderful life
