

Gyllene Tider, Another Place, Another Time

Time time...

Time

So close that i can touch you,
give me time
so near that i can breathe you,
give me time
i don't know why i feel like surrender

Chains

The feeling of the feelings still remains You're much too old to keep on playing games
I don't why I feel like surrender

And it's a strange feeling, strange feeling I feel inside
And it's a strange beating, strange beating from this heart of mine
i got to run, i got to hide
Another place, another time

Time time

A chill is slowly rolling down my spine
And suddenly i lose the grip on time
The time and the space of time

And it's a strange feeling, strange feeling I feel inside
And it's a strange beating, strange beating from this heart of mine
I got to run, I got to hide
Another place, another time
And it's a strange feeling, strange feeling I feel inside
And it's a strange beating, strange beating from this heart of mine

Time time time

Another place, another time
Time...
