Tunnel rat schematics far from your average rappers new era that nonsense behind us this is how we do it i'm just a hooligan get drunk while in a j spittin raw sewage

Splinter cell movements. turnstyle jumper punks step up to get beat down bumper alias and bright colors so bright leave you cryin' like late night mothers Hover board kick flips landin' a little to the left As you can bet every result was a split lip skip school make shortcuts Act foolish like kids with the windows on the short bus

CHORUS: (X 2)
welcome to shellshock
ringin' in your ears like the bells that el rock It doesn't matter whether or not the cell locks if you can find silence in the coldest cell block

welcome to shellshock

I did it my way sat back and let 'em live soft so he can die hard yippie kye yay we exist in circles so the first grader to push me gets boxed like girl scout cookies this is not a test (we don't trust you)
not a fan of men (that rock ugg boots)
I don't understand
(Can you blame me?)
I guess that's just the way (Ma pop's raised me)

A penny for a thought, a nickel for a swift fist to the face for letting them think that I let my players go to waste (no) top of the food chain but way too cool to not drop a little sarcasm in your water main D-Did i stutter man
