

Gyroscope, I Wish I Did

Truly drunk enough to talk to you,
We sat until 4AM, flicking through an atlas.
Comparing destinations- repeating conversations.
For you I'll stay awake, for this I'll stay awake.
Pins and needles in my arm that you're leaning on.
Comfort? There is none, at least we're touching.
Drinking to every sunset- we were sleeping through every sunrise.
For you I'll stay awake, for this I'll stay awake.
Drinking to every sunset- we were sleeping through every sunrise.
For you I'll stay awake, for this I'll stay awake.
For you I'll stay awake, for this I'll stay awake, for this I'll stay for
You I'll stay awake for you I'll stay awake for this I'll stay...
