

Gyroscope, Raindrops

Hear me whistle from the back row, baby in the background.
Do you miss me like the sight of new day?
Stand tall my brethren for this is how we play.
Don't tell me I've missed the boat again.
If you saw what I see, would you look again, would you look again?
On a Sunday morning
Hear me whistle from the back row, baby in the background
Pull out them love staples my friend.
Find out which person's side you're on again.
On a Sunday morning.
Take just one, if they can't stay, it's better off for everyone.
High this night. Keep me safe, it will be better off for everyone.
Can you sense when she is ready to play?
Stand tall my brethren, as this is our new day.
Take just one, if they can't stay, it's better off for everyone
Hide this night. Keep me safe, it will be better off for everyone
Hear me whistle for the raindrops...
On a Sunday morning
Take just one, if they can't stay, it's better off for everyone.
Hide this knife. Keep me safe, it will be better off for everyone.
