

Gyroscope, Sharp Words

I've been watching the clock all night i'm done i know the night is young You've been talking the ears clean off my head Therefore i haven't heard a word you've said Anyway
we fall away
your tongue is bleeding from all your sharp words from all your sharp words Could you hit me from where i am?
And would you hit me now where i stand?
I've been listening you know that obviously you know that Anyway
we fall away
your tongue is bleeding now Anyway
it's the way
i am leaving now
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
Anyway
we fall away
my throat is bleeding now Anyway
it's the way
i am leaving now
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
fall away
fall away
fall away
fall away
fall away
fall away
fall away
fall away
I cant breathe
I cant breathe
I cant breathe
