

H-Blockx, Tell Me Why

That tuesday night, turned 26 and I caught your smile laid down my life, one kiss would take me through the night I close my eyes, I feel your touch, I see you smile it's on my mind, it's just a dream I know, but why?

why I just can't stop wondering you're on my mind noone tells me why, tell me why tell me why you filled that emptiness in me tell me why, tell me why,

just to tell you goodbye a day down the line, reality's back on my mind yesterday's behind, the charm of love has died but why unsatisfied with what we get used to in this life I laid it aside, looks so pale with open eyes so I just keep on wondering about what's on my mind

why again you filled that emptiness in me
tell me why, tell me why,
why again you filled that emptiness in me
so I tell you goodbye

tell me why you filled that emptiness in me
tell me why, tell me why,
tell me why, tell me why,
why again you filled that emptiness in me
so I tell you goodbye
