

H.I.M., And Love Said No

and love's light blue
led me to you,
from the emptiness that had become my home.
love's lies, cruel,
introduced me to you.
and that moment, i knew that i was out of hope.

kill me, i begged and love said no
leave me for dead and let me go.
kill me, i cried and love said no.

love's icy tomb, dug open for you,
lies in cemetery that bears my name.
love's violent tune from me to you,
rips your heart out and leaves you bleeding,
with a smile on your face.

leave me for dead and let me go.

love's light blue took me from you,
and that moment i knew that i was out of hope...
again.

leave me for dead and let me go.
kill me, i cried and love said no.
love said no,
and love said no.
