H.I.M., Heartache Every Moment

from lashes to ashes and from lust to dust in your sweetest torment i'm lost and no heaven can help us ready, willing and able to lose it all for a kiss so fatal and so warm

oh it's heartache every moment from the start till the end it's heartache every moment with you deeper into our heavenly suffering our fragile souls are falling it's heartache every moment baby with you and we sense the danger but don't wanna give up 'there's no smile of an angel without the wrath of god

oh it's heartache every moment from the start till the end it's heartache every moment with you deeper into our heavenly suffering our fragile souls are falling it's heartache every moment baby with you my darling with you from lashes to ashes and from lust to dust in your sweetest torment i'm lost and we sense the danger but don't wanna give up

oh it's heartache every moment from the start till the end it's heartache every moment with you deeper into our heavenly suffering our fragile souls are falling it's heartache every moment baby with you that's right
