

H-Town, Woman's Anthem

Yeah... yeah baby it's your anthem

Say yeah yeah yeah ooo oh yeah

[Verse 1:]

Said I'm sorry for what we've done so many years

Said that we've been doing it

Say being fools so many days of our lives

Listen say

Some of us don't mean to do it

I can admit I was wrong

Yeah I'll say

Said I'm apologizing for stupidity

Apologizing for unequal rights

Apologizing for d-o-g's

That's why I want you to listen while I say it

[Chorus:]

Said I'm so sorry for what we have done to you

Said I'm so sorry for what we have done to you

For being d-o-g's [x3]

For all of our lives [x3]

Help me out here say

[Verse 2:]

See I remember the days when man was doin things

Like leaving they woman at home to go out to see another woman and maybe another man too

Sometimes it get rough in your life and we never act like we're there we don't even act like we care

Say I'm apologizing for 1992 for 1993 cause that was part of me

And nothing else I can see

But baby I'm apologizing for all you dogs

I'm apologizing for when we (didn't come home)

I'm apologizing for when we (every abuse)

I'm apologizing for when we listen ladies your anthem

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]

Sorry for the mornings and the night (not coming home)

Sorry for puttin my hands on you that wasn't right (yeah)

Sorry for running out when we made life

But we can renew it we can renew it oh today

Said I'm so sorry for what we have done to you...

Why would we do such a thing for being alone

Break it down play it dino...

Listen I'm a preach again (preach on)

See man been doin it wrong doin it wrong doin it backwards all his damn life now it's time it's time t
