

H2O, All We Want(Unreleased)

Cover up your eyes, and put your fingers in your ears, we will probably say some shit that you dont wanna hear. theres too many kids out there who never stand a chance they say some basic words there mom and dad dont understand (chorus)

all we want
is only to be wanted
no ones home
and the kids are going crazy
now, while were screaming for attention
no ones home
and the kids are going crazy blame it on the music or the movies and the games turning up the volume so that you can hear the sound cause what are kids supposed to do when no one is around?
(chorus)

its just a matter of attention its to late for intervention never get back what you lost cause time will spend each time together finally found a new mission so you're always on the go will always get home again but with someone you dont know you will never love me once you had a choice to make spending all the money trying to cover your mistakes (chorus)

yeah the kids are goin crazy right now

(chorus)

and thats all we want

(chorus)
