Hades Almighty, Pagan Prayer

over the cold endless mountain streem into the dark frozen forest under the snow coverd trees through the wintery whispering winds great gods of Esgerd guide us through the night let your ravens fly lead us through valleys great gods of valhalla guide us through woods great gods of valhalla let your valkyres fly and let us enter let us enter thy hall
