

Hades, The Ecstasy Of An Astral Journey

burning midnight skies
the blaze of the stars is calling again wispering mystic chorus a promise of immortality take my soul to where the falcons fly to the gates of triumph the skies are bleeding like an open wound we are born again

the queen of the night have raised again she is the goddess of where our journey ends

take my soul to where the falcons fly I ride on a tail of moonfog throughout the burning midnight skies thy queen - the goddess the enemy of christ I greet you on your throne of star dust teach me the art of erotic sin grant me the source of bestial lust

forever free
burning midnight skies!!!
