

Hady Mirza, You Give Me Wings

Sometimes it's hard just to be yourself
I know you know
So close to tears wanting to give up
I felt all alone.....

But now you're here right by my side
And I just want you to know

You give me wings when I'm falling
You lift me up when I'm down
Taking me high touching the sky
Yeah, you make me fly...

Now I am stronger than I was before
Because of you
I feel so alive and I'm wanting more
I can't believe it's true and now you're here, right by my side
Don't ever let me go.....

You give me wings when I'm falling
You lift me up when I'm down
Taking me high touching the sky
yeah, you make me fly...

Ooo baby, woah woah
Come fly away with me.....

You give me wings when I'm falling
That's why I'm saying to you Whoa...

You give me wings when I'm falling
When I'm falling
You lift me up when I'm down
When I'm down
Taking me high
taking me high
Touching the sky
touching the sky
yeah, you make me
You make me fly.....

You give me wings when I'm falling
Whoa yeah
You lift me up when I'm down
When I'm down
Taking me high
Taking me high
Touching the sky
Touching the sky
yeah, you make me
You make me fly.....

you give me wings
