

Hagfish, Goes Down

That girl forgot how to smile She got some mud in the apple of her eye Her hair is a shade too light for me

White shoes and they're full of class (?) Her father's gonna kick my ass because he don't know
she like to go

she goes down
she goes down, down
she goes down
she really likes to go down, yeah down, yeah

That girl is a mean machine She's got a shirt full of clean (?) she learned to table dance at age 18 yeah hair club, shopping mall force fed through her lips (wtf?) pants tight, she don't bite no

she goes down, down
she goes down

fools say that she couldn't get a date to the high school dance i don't care i will hold her chubby hand as she undoes my pants can't you see she is a whale of a girl to me

yeah
