

Hail The Villain, Take Back The Fear

What I believe is all that I am
Take it away, Im only a man
Back from the dead and now it appears
Ill be the one to take back the fear
Kill or be killed, that isnt me
Maybe its you dying to be
Somebody else. Man of the year
But I am the one to take back the fear
Dont want anything taken away
Taken away from me
Its all that I believe
Message of hate, fading away
My love and my failures one in the same
Now that Im back, painfully clear
But Ill be the one to take back the fear
When it seems that everything was all a dream
Everythings not what it seems
Even I cannot believe in me easily
