

Hail The Villain, Try Hating The World

Hey everyone come quick
I fuck myself and it will stick
For how long ever after
Oh, even if I quit
The pain will last and I dont fit
In this parade
Try hating the world
Like Im used to
Try hating the world
Its all I ask of
Take the sun right from the sky
Fill it with clouds and bitter lies
So longs as youre happy
Go running through my mind
Youve got your scars, well I got mine
To hold you through
