

Hale, Take No

I've gone away and went through hell and back and...
I never was and will again
All the tears i've held inside
Why it had to be this long

And I have failed to see

I would've wanted you gone
I, but it's just too soon all the times i kept you outside

Why you had to be so strong

And i have failed to see
These dreams they haunt me back

Praise fate
Cause I'm coming home

You...
