Hale, Take No

I've gone away and went through hell and back and... I never was and will again All the tears i've held inside Why it had to be this long

And I have failed to see

I would've wanted you gone I, but it's just too soon all the times i kept you outside

Why you had to be so strong

And i have failed to see These dreams they haunt me back

Praise fate Cause I'm coming home

You...
